

Doctoral Colloquium
11th Annual Conference of the Association of Cultural Management

Hamburg, 17 January 2018, 12:00-15:30
Hochschule für Musik und Theater Hamburg/Germany
Institut für Kultur- und Medienmanagement (KMM)

The Young Academics Working Group of the Association of Cultural Management would like to invite you to the doctoral colloquium. The doctoral colloquium is an opportunity to get insights in current research projects in cultural management and to discuss with doctoral students.

The doctoral colloquium takes place on 17 January from 12:00-15:30. Each presentation is followed by 15 min discussion. The room will be announced at the venue.

Programme:

12:00

Welcome: Leticia Labaronne, Nina Tessa Zahner, Young Academics Working Group

12:10-12:40

Berend Barkela, Universität Koblenz-Landau: Leadership Communication in Cultural Organisations. An Analysis of Internal Communication of Senior Management, taking into account Competing Rationalities in Different Organisational Fields within Theatres (in German)

12:40-13:10

Mara Ruth Käser, Universität Hannover: Solidarity and Cooperation in Theatre Collectives – Working Conditions and Work Processes of Independent Theatremakers in the Context of Cultural Policy (in German)

13:10-13:40

Ellen Heidelberger, Pädagogische Hochschule Ludwigsburg: The Intelligent Cultural Organisation. Knowledge Management in Theatre Organisations (in German)

13:40-14:00

Break (Snacks, Drinks, Networking)

14:00-14:30

Nevena Marković, The Institute of Heritage Sciences – Incipit, The Spanish National Research Council: From Participatory Research to (Critical) Emotional Cartography of Places and Memories. Mapping the “unseen”, decoding Emotionalscapes of Galicia (Spain) and Serbia (in English)

14:30-15:00

Gina Emerson, Hochschule für Musik und Theater, Hamburg: Developing Audiences for Contemporary Classical Music: A Comparative Study of Strategies and Audience Experiences Across New Music Institutions in Europe (in English)

15:00-15:30

Joint final discussion

We are looking forward to meeting you in Hamburg!

The Young Academics Working Group

Leticia Labaronne

Anke Schad

Nina Tessa Zahner